

"Seven Secrets" is going to please all the folks who have been waiting since 2004's "When the Love Ran Deep" for some new music from the singer/songwriter. As usual Anne Marie wraps her acoustic guitar around insightful and colorful lyrics. She knows how to grab the listener with a simple melody here or a nice turn of phrase there.

In fact, "Seven Secrets" actually shows Menta's growth as a songwriter. These tunes are more fully formed than the ones on the very good "Love Ran Deep." The record...was produced by the great Dick Neal. He even helped pen a couple of songs. A very good group of musicians, including Neal, Vic Steffens, Jordan Jancz, Katie Wilson, Scott Lebish and Mark Mirando lend a hand to a few tunes."

Patrick Ferrucci
New Haven Register
November 2009